

MarinHealth admits it doesn't need the tax — it just wants a cushion.

Marin IJ (Sept 13, 2026): the hospital is "performing well" — and denied any existential threat.

MARIN'S HOSPITAL TAX KEEPS CLIMBING

Measure F (current hospital bonds) climbs on its own.
Measure CC stacks ~$12.4M/yr on top — a second 30-year tax.

You already pay a hospital tax.
Don't let it double again.

Vote NO on Measure CC
